GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

- Authors are recommended to submit originally written, unpublished work to RDC-2022 in Microsoft Word or PDF format notified on the website.
- Authors are recommended to use scientific and technical language in the research paper.
- Submissions should strictly follow the recommended template given on the conference website. Authors should follow the given Guidelines for Manuscript Preparation.
- All references must follow the given proceeding conference format of referencing.
- All the papers submitted in the conference will be peer-reviewed.
- Authors name and sequence submitted in easy chair must be in accordance with the submitted manuscript.
- All fonts must be embedded in the file.
- Authors can't be added or removed at later stage post submission.
- Fonts which require non-English language support are not allowed.
- Submitted article should not have any password protection
- Authors will be considered as mentioned in easy chair, so put all co-authors information in easy chair.
- Authors can't be added or removed at later stage.
- The paper length should not exceed 8 pages. However, the authors can extend the paper length up to a maximum of 12 pages which will be charged at Rs.1000 per page above the allowable length.
- Review papers will be considered if it demonstates sufficient novelty and evidently discusses the benefits in the field. To publish, such papers one must go beyond a review of the literature and define the field in a new way or highlights exciting new technologies in the area of research.
- All the submitted papers will be subjected to a similarity test using Turnitin Software.
- Papers achieving a similarity score of less than 15% will be examined and those deemed unacceptable may be rejected/withdrawn without a formal review.